This Taiwanese animated fantasy film follows a young 5 year old boy named Dou-Dou as he adjusts to life with his grandmother while his mother is away. While initially bored with his new surroundings, he discovers that his grandma is a supernatural expert who regularly contends with ghosts!

. One day, she realises that her grandson has mistakenly releases some of the most ferocious ghosts from her house...

Come join us for an extraordinary experience of Grandma's magical world! This 1998 animation film is considered one of the most classic animation productions from Taiwan. At home, it serves as a memory of the generation while abroad, it tells traditional Taiwanese culture through a heart-warming story to the world.

The film was recently restored with help from Taiwan Film and Audio Institute and returned to the cinemas in Taiwan last year. Taiwan Film Festival Edinburgh is honoured to show this magical story at Bridgend Farmhouse this Summer.
